THE CONVENTION.

If the proceedings of the nominating convention did not result as expected in several cases, the decisions will probably on the whole commend themselves to a great majority of the voters. They should also be satisfactory to the community at large, which includes many who would be electors excepting for their own inadvertence. Indeed, the most pronounced feature of the convention seemed to be a realizing sense of its responsibility, owing to the fact that only one organized party was in the field, with the further fact that, on account of the transition period through which the country is passing, the burden of popular government rests for the time being upon a small advance guard. Slates were broken without ruff, and several very worthy men were "dumped." The fact is there was more fit material available than the occasion demanded. It would be a sorry state of affairs if the case were otherwise. All the objections heard about town to any of the candidates selected are easily answered. The ticket will compare favorably with any put in the field since the revolution of 1897. It is equal in both debating talent and business capacity, to say the least, to any set of men ever sent to the Legislature from this island, and, as for good standing and integrity, is proof against the sharpest arrows of detraction. The platform of principles is an eminently good one. It is "broad," as the temporary chairman anticipated it should be. Appreciative of the good record of the administration, it is in nowise a subservient deliverance. It has enough of stimulant in it to make the Government take good heed to its ways, so that it may not drop into the rut of presumptuous self-sufficiency or become stalled upon the reefs of old fossilism. The principles are stated with a clearness so that the runner may read, and a terseness of expression that will make them stick in the popular mind like burrs on a fleece. With such a platform and such a ticket, the American Union party on Oahu has only to exercise due activity and vigilance to prevent the success of any irresponsible candidatures on the twenty-ninth.

IN THE HIGHER COURTS

DECISION IN DAMON VS. BISHOP ESTATE FOR PLAINTIFF.

Hearing at Chambers-Akina Contempt Case-Estate of Charles Hammer.

A unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court has been rendered in the equity suit of S. M. Damon against the Trustees of the Bishop Estate to compel them to accept his resignation in anticipation of his recent absence at the Diamond Jubilee in London. Justice Whiting is author of the deliverance, the other members of the Court being Justice Frear and Circuit Judge Perry, as substitute for the Chief Justice, absent.

The decree of the Circuit Court allowing the resignation is sustained, but it is maintained that the Circuit Judge did not go far enough in the matter. For, in connection with the resignation of a trustee, there should be at least an accounting, an appointment of a new trustee, and a decree transferring and conveying the estate of the trust to the new trustee. Until all this was done the discharge of the resigning trustee could not be complete. Therefore, the case is remitted to the Circuit Judge for such further proceedings as may be necessary.

Besides what is above set forth, the Court lays down the law, in the syllabus of opinion, as follows:

"Where there is no statute regulating the resignation of a trustee a person, after the acceptance of a trust, cannot renounce and resign the office of trustee merely of his own act and caprice. He can only be discharged by a decree of court, by force of a provision in the deed of instrument creating the trust, or by consent of all parties interested."

Paul Neumann for plaintiff; Kinney & Ballou for defendant. Judge Carter is hearing the assumpsit suit of M. G. Silva vs. Antonio Fernandes. Creighton and Correa for plaintiff; Thurston & Stanley for defendant.

W. R. Castle, attorney for plaintiff in Kekala vs. John Akina, divorce, has filed a motion to strike out defendant's supplementary answer in contempt, as "immaterial, irrelevant and scandalous."

David Dayton, administrator of the estate of the late Charles Hammer, has filed his first and final account with petition for discharge. It balances at $507.91.

Deputy Marshal Hitchcock has returned the execution on judgment in the Circuit Court for plaintiff, in the case of J. K. Prendergast vs. T. P. Severin, for $35.10 including fees, as fully satisfied.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

EDITOR EVENING BULLETIN:—Having been informed this morning that my name has been used in connection with an independent candidacy for the Legislature in the fifth district, I desire to state that the same is entirely without my sanction, as I have absolutely no intention of entering for legislative honors at this election. CHAS. CREIGHTON.
Honolulu, Sept. 16, 1897.

Captain Edwin has received a telegram from Adelaide stating that a fall of ashes has been recorded in West Australia. As this is probably the result of the volcanic eruption in the Philippine Islands, the circumstance is worthy of some notice, owing to the distance the ashes must have been carried, which would probably be from 2000 to 2700 miles.—New Zealand Herald.

Timely Topics

Sept. 15, 1897.

ANNEXATION is near at hand we are told, and the arrival of Senator Morgan and Representatives Cannon, Loudenslayer, Berry and Tawney seems to point in this direction. With annexation an unprecedented wave of prosperity is expected to sweep over the land, bringing with it dinners and feasts and merry-making.

We have quietly been preparing for this event, and laid in a stock of articles useful and ornamental for the festal board. Our stock of HAVILAND CHINA is more complete than ever, and if any set or piece is broken by careless servants, you can always have it replaced from our stock.

STERLING SILVER WARE is indispensable to a well appointed dinner table. We have just received a new invoice of sets of Oyster Forks, Berry Spoons, Soup Ladles, Lettuce, Meat and Pickle Forks, etc., etc., which are sold very cheap.

In PLATED WARE we carry a full line of Spoons, Knives and Forks, Salvers, Tea and Coffee Sets, Coffee, Chocolate and Egg Spoons, Butter Dishes, Spoonholders, Casters, Water Pitchers, Fruit and Butter Knives, Fish and Pie Sets, Cheese Scoops, Sugar Shells, Crumb Trays and Brushes and other articles too numerous to mention.

Also CELLULOID and ALUMINUM COMB and BRUSH SETS, ROCKWOOD and CUT GLASS WARE.
